ORGANISATION PROFILE · EUROPEAN COOPERATION

FGME in Europe

Fundación Gallega Mujer Emprendedora · Galicia, Spain

Fundación Gallega Mujer Emprendedora (FGME), established in 2001, is a Galician foundation promoting entrepreneurship, talent development, equal opportunities and social transformation. On its 25th anniversary, FGME is entering a new phase focused on collaboration, innovation and European engagement.

ORGANISATION DETAILS

- Legal name: Fundación Gallega Mujer Emprendedora (FGME)
- Legal status: non-profit foundation
- Year established: 2001
- Geographical scope: Galicia, Spain; European cooperation ambitions
- Erasmus+ Organisation ID (OID): E10442069

FIELDS OF ACTIVITY

- Entrepreneurship & Business: business initiatives, networks and opportunities.
- Talent & Training: lifelong learning, skills, leadership and employability.
- Equality & Impact: rights, inclusion and addressing inequalities.
- Innovation & Transformation: responsible technology and social innovation.
- People & Wellbeing: wellbeing, participation and quality of life.
- Sustainability: initiatives supporting lasting social and territorial impact.

POTENTIAL CONTRIBUTION TO A CONSORTIUM

Knowledge of the Galician context; links with business, social, educational and institutional organisations; participant outreach and engagement; support for training activities, events and awareness-raising; communication, dissemination and transfer of results. Specific responsibilities would be agreed according to each project and partnership.

COOPERATION INTERESTS

FGME is interested in exploring European partnerships and projects addressing women's entrepreneurship, digital skills, inclusion, equality, social innovation, wellbeing and sustainability. Its European engagement is developing; participation in future calls and the role of each organisation are subject to project-specific agreements.

CONTACT AND PARTNERSHIP ENQUIRIES

Institutional website: www.fgme.org

Partnership enquiries: comunicacion@fgme.org